Hon. S. S. Cox in the Empire State.
Mr. Cox's speaking tour throughout New York is a series of grand orations, which must be exceedingly gratifying to that distinguished tribune of the people, after the disgraceful outrages at Richmond and Xenia. In Buffalo, in Syracuse, in Canandaigua, in Rochester, and in Albany, where he has already spoken, he was greeted by such audiences as were never before assembled in the Empire State. The lowest estimate of the number present at the smallest of all the meetings, puts it at forty thousand, and Cox's speeches are all commended as being most powerful and most eloquent productions. He will speak in Brooklyn to-night at Monmouth Battle Ground, in New Jersey, to-morrow; in New York City on Wednesday evening. From there he goes to Philadelphia, and through Pennsylvania.

We reassured that New York and Pennsylvania will both go for McClellan, and that he will certainly be elected.
Walker!
ROBERT J. WALKER, a fenegade Democrat who now holds one of the ten thousand new offices created by ABRAHAM LINCOLN, and is living in Europe in grand style on a big salary, has written a long winded letter on behalf of his master's claims to the Presidency, in which he labors to convince himself that "there should be but one party in the United States," and that party the one which pays him his salary. According to WALKER's magnificent political creed, any movement to defeat LINCOLN is a conspiracy to cheat ROBERT J. out of his salary, and it is, therefore, treason. Every man who refuses to join the old fashioned Abolition Disunion party is a traitor treacherously bent upon robbing WALKER of the pay he has managed to secure for himself under every Administration during the last thirty years. This disinterested patriot need not be so dreadfully alarmed about himself, for he can more easily turn Democrat again, swallow his words, and support McClellan's Administration—in an office—than any man in Europe or America. He has swallowed himself so often, politically, that it has become a habit with him.

Poor Sharkey!
It became our duty some time ago—it was a disagreeable duty—to dispose of poor Sharkey, a half-witted booby who is trying to edit an unclean little sheet over at Zanesville called The Courier. He shunk away into his hole covered with the ridicule and contempt that we felt called upon to administer, and was not heard from until near the close of last week, when he ventured to steal out long enough to feebly object (in very bad English) to us as President of the Democratic Editorial Association of Ohio—an organization which he has not sense enough to see the necessity of. We advise his friends—if he has any—to keep him in, let what little of brains he has be thrown into still greater confusion by being kicked as he deserves to be. It isn't safe for such a fool to undertake to handle "sharp tools!"

The Loyal League Conspiracy to Carry the Election by Fraud.
The Abolitionists, elated by their success in perpetrating election frauds in Indiana and elsewhere, and seriously alarmed at their greatly diminished majorities in Ohio, are perfecting arrangements to perpetrate frauds in this State. The preliminary symptom of this conspiracy is given out by the State House clerks who correspond with the Cincinnati Abolition papers, and do the unclean work for the Abolition State Central Committee. For these correspondence items give out, it is pretty clear that the Loyal Leaguers have a plan to vote at the Presidential Election in citizens' clothes in the morning and in soldiers' clothes in the afternoon, and keep on voting wherever and whenever they can, as they did at Indianapolis and other points in Indiana, on the 11th of October. The Democracy should be prepared to detect and expose these Abolition frauds wherever attempted. The Loyal Leaguers are sworn to carry the election for their master in Washington, and there is not a particle of doubt that they will for once attempt to keep their oaths, even if fraud and bloodshed are required. Let Democrats be warned in time. This is no electioneering story—it is the solid truth.

The Democratic Press and the Local Committees.
The Democratic papers of Ohio are doing their whole duty in this great contest. We have never known them to be more ably and efficiently conducted than they are now. Their arguments and their appeals are having a powerful effect among the people; their exposures of corruption and crime in high places, and their denunciations of the tyrannical acts and outrages perpetrated by our wicked rulers, are bringing many over to the true faith—the support of the Hero-Statesman, GEORGE B. MCLELLAN. The Democratic county papers are edited with unusual vigor and force in this extraordinary campaign, and are more than ever before entitled to the liberal support of the Democratic people and politicians of their respective counties. The local committees, too, outside of this city and this county, are nobly discharging the duties with which they are intrusted; and are prosecuting the canvass most vigorously and effectively. To them and to the Democratic press of Ohio, we will be largely indebted for the great popular triumph we shall achieve on the EIGHTH OF NOVEMBER.

A Specimen of Abolition Lying.
We find the following infamous lie in a late issue of The Sandusky Register—a paper that claims to be about as decent as any of its Abolition contemporaries; and we only reproduce it to show our readers how desperate Lincoln's dogs are becoming:
"Has anyone ever seen the Chicago Platform in a Democratic paper, since the date of its promulgation? No. But a vast number of the Union papers keep it up as standing matter in their columns—it being found the best electioneering article they can publish."

Our readers need not be told that we have kept the Chicago Platform as standing matter in THE STATESMAN ever since our return from the Convention; and most of the other Democratic papers have done, and are doing, the same thing. Nor is it true that "a vast number of the Abolition papers keep it up as standing matter in their columns." We don't know of one that does it! What reckless lying!

The State of Ohio is being flooded with Abolition documents in the shape of roorbacks, greenbacks, and lies, pending the Presidential Election. LINCOLN's postmasters are folding them in the papers of Democrats. This proceeding shows to what straits the Administration is driven, in order to continue its ruinous and tyrannical policy four years longer.

The soldiers from Pickaway County in the 11th Regiment O. V. I. gave Fifty 39 votes for Congress, and SEVEN 73—The vote of the entire Regiment stood thus: Democratic, 105; Republican, 247. Last year VALLANDIGHAM had but two votes in this Regiment. This is a commendable gain for the Democracy.

Pennsylvania Election.
[Special Correspondence of Cleveland Plain Dealer.]
612 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 24, 1864.

Mr. John S. Stephenson, Editor Cleveland Plain Dealer:
DEAR SIR—There have been so many erroneous and false reports circulated, regarding the election in Pennsylvania, that I think it but just and proper to inform you of the true and simple statement of the vote of the people of Pennsylvania, at the recent election, held on the 11th inst.

The official vote gives the Democracy a majority of over two thousand on the Congressional tickets, and over eight thousand on the State tickets. The vote last year, for Governor, resulted as follows:
Andrew G. Curtin, 599,596
George W. Woodward, 354,171
Curtin's majority, 245,425
Thus it will be seen that the Democracy have made a gain of over twenty-three thousand votes, over last year's figures. This, considering the shortness of the campaign, is a glorious triumph. It will not be putting the figures too high, when I say Pennsylvania will give twenty thousand majorities for GEORGE B. MCLELLAN. Our State is well organized—never better. The people are well awake to the issues before them. The corruption of money, or the ironies of power, will not deter the honest yeomanry of Pennsylvania, from sounding the key-note to the death-knell of the first Administration who dared to trample down the sacred rights of the American citizen—for which our fathers fought during a long and bloody struggle of seven years.

I will telegraph you the probable result in Pennsylvania, on the night of the election, so look out for a thunderbolt from the old Keystone, ever first and firm in the arch of Victory.
A. T. G.
A "Gang."
This is the epithet applied to the gallant soldiers from this city, who recently received the Seventeenth Battery, at New Orleans, to the number of twenty. A majority of these men voted for Mr. Hook, and therefore the Journal bestows upon them the odious and opprobrious epithet—"gang!" and asserts that the battery will not be benefited by the addition of such men. Persons in the army, who choose to exercise their own judgment in voting, will please take notice that in the Black Republican estimation, they are no longer "brave boys," but simply "a gang." The secret of this vote is to be found in the fact, that these brave and honest fellows have remained long enough at home to know and appreciate the patriotism of the Democracy; while those who have been in the field two or three years, have been lied to and deceived by the Black Republicans, and who are in total ignorance of the character of parties at home. Were the army all as well informed as the new recruits just going to the field, the Democratic ticket—Dagton Empire.

THE LATEST OUTRAGE.
[From The New York World, Oct. 24.]
Attempt to Rob Democratic Soldiers of their Votes—Insult to New York State—State Agents in Washington and Baltimore Arrested and their Offices Closed—The Beginning of the End—Concessions of Administration—Stool-Pigeons—The Feeling in this City—What the People think of the Matter.

We print below the dispatches received last night in reference to the outrage upon the New York State Soldiers' Agencies in Baltimore and Washington, together with the dispatch to the Tribune foreshadowing the proceeding. The whole thing bears on its face the evidence that it is a part of Mr. Lincoln's "way" of managing the political campaign to re-elect himself. The charges are trumped up; the confessions are those of "stool-pigeons" in the interest of the Administration; and the immediate cause is the certainty that the electoral vote of New York is to be cast for General Seymour, and that Horatio Seymour is to be re-elected to his chief magistracy—Governor Seymour will doubtless see that the honor of the Empire State is fully vindicated, in which course he will be supported by all its patriotic citizens.

[The dispatches that follow here, have already appeared in THE STATESMAN—EDITOR.]
THE FEELING IN THE CITY.
We took the trouble yesterday to send reporters to various portions of the city to ascertain the feeling, if possible, in regard to the gigantic conspiracy of the Administration to suppress the votes of Democratic soldiers by the arrest of our State agents, and the closing of their offices. The feeling was everywhere as indicated in the Tribune of yesterday morning. The concurrent testimony of our reporters is, that throughout the entire metropolis there is but one sentiment as to the matter, and that is, that the Administration is determined that the Democratic soldiers shall have a fair vote; that the Democratic citizens will not submit for one instant to this last crowning act of despotism. The bitter indignation which is universal, and which has been kindled; it is beyond words. The people believe that argument is exhausted, and that unless Lincoln recedes, there is but one course left for them.

We give a brief record of a few of the discussions which were overheard by our reporters. They will serve as an indication of the metropolitan sentiment.
On the corner of Avenue A and East Twelfth street, a mob of negroes were collected last night, a little after six o'clock. From unmistakable indications in the shape of the pails, begrimed faces, and horny hands, it was evident the crowd was composed of workmen. On stepping up, our reporter discovered that they had been called to the corner by the threat of suppression of our soldiers' votes, and immediately transcribed the conversation of the two evident spokesmen of the party: "You don't really think, Mac, they'll do it?" "I know they will. They'll try it at any rate; but well sweep the scoundrels off the earth!" "That's so, that's so," said a dozen voices in chorus. After some further remarks of the same determined character, the crowd broke up. An exciting discussion took place in Wall street, near the office of The Journal of Commerce, yesterday. Some prominent Republicans were attempting to smooth over Lincoln's flagrant attempt to carry the election by fraud, the charging that they had been told by the Tribune that the whole thing was a hoax. The Democrats in the crowd—and there were several—seemed impressed with the belief that there was more in this matter than even the paper in question had dared to disclose. The discussion ran very high, and at one time looked a little serious; but finally the assembly dispersed without any disturbance.

In the St. Nicholas and Fifth Avenue hotels, the dialogue between individuals, and general discussions, were frequent throughout the afternoon and evening, and were often very bitter.
On eleven cars of the Third Avenue line yesterday afternoon, at 100 per cent, were earnest and exciting discussions on the ill-important subject. But one opinion was expressed as to the merits and demerits of the matter, and no attempt was made to palliate the outrage. In many cases the Republicans engaged in these controversies confined their efforts to throwing doubt upon the statements of the Tribune.

The crowds assembled all day in front of the bulletin boards of The World would indicate that the World had been told that the New York soldiers are voting for McClellan. I think the army vote is tampered with, as most of the officers are Lincoln men. You know most of the soldiers who served under the Stars and Stripes. Yes, they did fighting bravely, while most of the fellows who are now voting for Lincoln were at home at ease. But after all, McClellan will carry the army, and if he don't the majority to Lincoln will be small.

An Infamous Electioneering Bulletin.
From Frankfort, Ky., the capital of that State, we have received a copy of The Lexington National Union, organ of the Administration, of the 18th October. The leading article is a statement of the plan to be observed there in conducting the next election, and threatening vengeance on all who vote for McClellan. We quote:
"The Presidential election, as all know, occurs on the 8th day of November next, when all who are entitled to vote, will have an opportunity of enrolling themselves for Lincoln and law, or for McClellan and the Southern Confederacy. All those who vote for the former will prove themselves superior to the 'negro'; those who cast their suffrage for the latter will show to all those who witness the act, that they are rebels and traitors, and, if Kentuckians, that they think more of slavery than the Government, their country, yes their God, for with rebels and traitors, the woolly headed negro becomes their God."

And on that day the Unconditional Union men propose, and are fully determined to see, that none, not one, who is disfranchised by the Kentucky law, shall cast his vote. They are fully determined to see that those who are by law entitled to vote, shall do so at the coming election. The history of every man in our country is written out, they are all known, all worked, and will be supported by all its patriotic citizens. The attempt to present himself at the polls on that day.

"After the election, the poll books will show how each man has cast his vote, and these books will be freely consulted by certain who are loyal and who disloyal, and when the gentlemen present themselves before our Board of Trade, &c., &c., declaring their loyalty, they will only have to refer to the poll books to stamp these traitors of the hour, and to show the candidates for whom they have voted. They will be for whom rebel soldiers, traitors and spies will want to vote. Look before you leap. Beware, before it is too late."

The concluding paragraph of this article would disgrace the minion of an European emperor in Poland or France. What can men be thinking of when they offer such arguments as this to Americans? Is the old glory gone forever? Will we think the American spirit can be cowed, and the American blood turned to water by such threats as these from newspaper warriors? The nation would deserve to meet its end, if such threats really affected the minds of her citizen sons.

Will the People Heed?
The address of the Democratic State Committee of Indiana, which we print this morning, ought to be read by every honest citizen of Indiana. It makes of the frauds on the part of the Republicans to secure the re-election of Governor Morton are not loose allegations, such as are apt to circulate during a political campaign, but actual facts, undeniable facts, terrible facts. The committee prove conclusively that the frauds in fourteen counties resulted in an increase of the Republican vote nearly equal to Morton's alleged majority in the whole State; and in these counties there were cast eleven thousand votes that were cast in 1860, and this notwithstanding the number of men which Indiana has furnished for the army. How this outrage was accomplished is well known. Soldiers from other States, the Republicans, were cast again and again, until a villainous rivalry arose as to who had voted the oftenest.

What words are strong enough to express the feeling of honest men at such a recital as this? Call it wrong, illegal, outrageous, and the truth is but half told. The times demand stronger words than words. There is a point beyond which forbearance is no longer a virtue, and unless we mistake the signs of the times, that point has been reached. The time has come when the frauds may wish. The freedom and purity of elections once destroyed, there is but one course left to all who love their country and desire to save it from utter ruin. To be forewarned is to be forearmed.—World.

The following extract from a private letter from an officer of the Eighty-eighth Regiment New York State Volunteers, shows how the brave soldiers vote when they are not overruled by the Administration:
HEADQUARTERS 88TH REGT., N. Y. S. V., NEAR PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 20.
MY DEAR
My regiment voted to-day. There were two hundred entitled to vote. They all voted for McClellan and General Seymour. The New York soldiers are voting for McClellan. I think the army vote is tampered with, as most of the officers are Lincoln men. You know most of the soldiers who served under the Stars and Stripes. Yes, they did fighting bravely, while most of the fellows who are now voting for Lincoln were at home at ease. But after all, McClellan will carry the army, and if he don't the majority to Lincoln will be small.

TESTIMONIALS.
From Hon. D. H. Cole, Senator from the Twenty-Ninth District.
ALBANY, Jan. 25th, 1864.
MY DEAR DR. LIGHTHILL—It is with great satisfaction that I communicate to you my application to you for defective hearing. I followed your directions which have resulted in my hearing being restored after the first few applications as to feel quite confident that I am well and shall not need to proceed further.
Be assured, my dear sir, if necessary should require, I should not hesitate to place myself under your magic hands. Yours with respect,
D. H. COLE, Albany, Orleans county, N. Y.

NEW TESTIMONIALS.
[From the Home Journal, June 4th.]
In every business or profession, indeed in every department of science or skill, there is always some acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief among his fellows, as a sort of leader. In the study and treatment of deafness and catarrh, as special cases of the human mind, Dr. Lighthill, of the firm of Dr. Lighthill, of the city of New York, occupies just the position above described. He has devoted years of labor to this specialty, and is now regarded as the acknowledged leader in the editorial columns of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:
"CURE OF A DEAF MUTE.—LOUIS LORING, a deaf mute of fourteen years of age, born in Germany, came to this city when he was about two years old. Soon after his arrival here he was taken sick and lost his hearing. By degrees he became deaf and dumb. For nearly ten years he was a mute, unable to hear the loudest voice, or to articulate a word. About one year ago he was placed by his parents in the hands of Dr. Lighthill, who has so far succeeded in restoring to him his lost powers of hearing, that he is now able to converse with those who speak to him distinctly and deliberately. During the past four or five months he has been under the tuition of Mr. FENNER, and has made considerable progress in reading and arithmetic."

Having been supplied with the last address, we further investigated the matter, and discovered that, previous to calling on Dr. Lighthill, the youth's case was considered hopeless, and he was for two years an inmate of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Rev. JOHN NORTON, D.D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady, in a published letter, bears his grateful thanks to Dr. Lighthill for treating successfully his case of deafness. Rev. FRANK S. JEWELL, Professor of the State Normal School at Albany, also testifies to having been cured of catarrh. Dr. Lighthill possesses other testimonials and tributes to his talent from some of our wealthiest and most prominent and respected citizens, which may be seen on application. It would be difficult to give in any but terse and brief language, in the face of these many proofs and facts testifying to his success.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DEAFNESS.
From Rev. Joseph M. Clarke, Rector of St. James Church:
SYRACUSE, Feb. 20, 1864.
I have been deaf in one ear ever since I was in college, some twenty years ago. By the skill of Dr. Lighthill, my hearing was entirely restored, so that now I hear alike with both ears, and I find that I can use my voice with much more ease and comfort than before.

U. S. 7-30 Loan
The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable three years from Aug. 15th, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest to be paid in lawful money.
These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from date, at the rate of one hundred dollars for each note, and in denominations of $20, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars.
The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original Certificates of Deposit as they can be prepared.
As the notes draw interest from August 15th persons making deposits subsequent to that date will pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.
Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN.
It is a NATIONAL SAVING BANK, offering a high rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its deposits in U. S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.
It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated in interest, and are the best security with bank-collectors for discounts.
Convertible into a Six per cent. 5-20 Gold Bond.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is worth about three per cent. per annum. For the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than 5 1/2 per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum.
Its Exemption from State or Municipal Taxation.
But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all Bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only, is pledged for payment, while the property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.
While the Government offers the most liberal terms for its loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of its people.
Up to the 30th of September, the subscription on this loan amounted to over $40,000,000.

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES at Washington, the several Assistant Treasurers and Designated Depositories, and by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF COLUMBUS, OHIO, ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.
A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who need Pres of Charge. Please inclose a stamped envelope, address yourself. Address:
JOSEPH T. INMAN, STATION D, BIBLE HOUSE, New York City. sep 18-1864

TO CONSUMPTIVES.
